

Name		Recording sheet to be used with 'Manhood Key Climate Change Indicator Species' Leaflet
	Address/phone	<h1>NIGHT TIME</h1>

Look out for Moth trap events on the Manhood Peninsula

Chichester Harbour Conservancy,
Chichester Natural History Society,
MWHG and Pagham Harbour.
(See websites and Chichester Observer for events)

Species	Date	Location	Grid Ref. Of record	Description (what was it doing?)	No.	Comments
	Example 03.01.08	Example Garden / Pagham Harbour	Example S Z 8 5 7 9 6 5	Example (E.g. flying, walking on the ground etc.)	1	Example feeding from a pond
Moth (night flying)
Bedstraw Hawk-moth			<input type="text"/>
Bordered Straw			<input type="text"/>
Clifden Nonpareil			<input type="text"/>
Diamond-back			<input type="text"/>
Rush Veneer			<input type="text"/>
Rusty Dot Pearl			<input type="text"/>
Silver Y (day & night flyer)			<input type="text"/>
Striped Hawk-moth			<input type="text"/>
The Delicate			<input type="text"/>
The Vestal			<input type="text"/>

Name		Recording sheet to be used with 'Manhood Key Climate Change Indicator Species' Leaflet
Address/phone		DAY TIME
		Usually found in gardens		Exception is the Fritillary which usually occurs in natural coastal grasslands where the main foodplant is Ribwort Plantain (Plantago lanceolata).
Species	Date	Location	Grid Ref. Of record	Description site details and habitat	No.	Comments
Moth
Hummingbird Hawk-moth (day flying)			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □
Silver Y (day & night flyer)			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □
Bee
Tree Bumblebee			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □
Butterflies
Clouded Yellow			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □
Glanville Fritillary			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □
Red Admiral			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □
Ladybird
Harlequin Ladybird			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □
For further details on this invasive ladybird, please see the 'Manhood Key Climate Change Indicator Species' leaflet.
Spider
Wasp Spider			□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □			